Presentations and Sprint Planning Meeting

Sprint Planning Meeting and Trello Grades

Your Trello board Each weekly “standup” will consist of a check-in of your Sprint progress. At the end of the sprint (approximately one month), you will receive a grade based on your:

- Size of the commitment you make at the beginning of each sprint and appropriateness of refinements throughout the Sprint.
- Completed tickets and demo-able code. The goal of each Sprint is to have demo-able code, hitting your next achievable milestone. Your demos should reflect reflect the current state of the project’s work on the Trello board.
- Progress on Incomplete or In Progress tickets.
- Teamwork assessment and contributions.

Stand-up Updates

- We read Slack group chats
- Slack and Trello are our only ways to see the work before you ramp up commits to github
